Ten Thousand Charms

(Come, Ye Sinners Poor and Needy—Joseph Hart)

Seems like you lived too long ago It's been so long since I've seen your face but what I know of you is love and compassion where a prodigal can find some mercy and grace

I will arise and go to Jesus
He will embrace me in his arms
In the arms of my dear Savior oh, there are ten thousand charms

I have wandered so far from you I've lost every sense of who I am I've tasted the wine of the world and it left me so thirsty and now I'm dying for your wine and bread

Come, oh sinners poor and needy weak and wounded, sick and sore If you wait until you're better you will never come at all
